HOW TO GET THERE

Try on this major

There are several courses within the Archaeology program that any UNCG student can take as a way to "try on" the major and determine if it is a good fit for you. Talk with your advisor if you are interested in "trying on" this major:

CCI 211: Introduction to Greek Archaeology (GEC:GHP, GE Marker: GL, CAR:GPM)*

CCI 212: Introduction to Roman Archaeology (GEC: GHP, GE Marker: GL, CAR: GPM)*

ATY 258: Introduction to Archaeology through World Prehistory (GEC: GSB, GE Marker: GN)*

*These courses fulfill degree requirements as outlined in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

When to take coursework

Students pursuing an Archaeology degree are required to take several different General Education Core (GEC) and College Additional Requirements (CAR) courses during their freshman and sophomore years. To ensure that you stay on track to graduate, talk with your advisor about registering for the following courses:

- CCI 211—first or second semester freshman year
- CCI 212—first or second semester freshman year
- ATY 258—first or second semester freshman year

Campus Organizations & Clubs and Professional Associations

- Society for American Archaeology
- Delta Chapter of Lambda Alpha
- Undergraduate Archaeological Association
- UNCG Historical Society

Special Interest Housing

Special interest housing communities are residential-based programs designed to enhance the overall undergraduate student experience by fostering one-on-one relationships between faculty, staff, and students in a close knit residence hall environment. Students are encouraged to explore intellectual, cultural, and social interests through experiential activities often linked to the academic curriculum. Students learn with friends, while gaining real-world experience all where they live. Special interest housing options include:

- Lloyd International Honors College
- Living-Learning Communities
- Residential Colleges
- Themed Communities

Past Internship Sites

Note: this is a partial listing of where students have interned in the past. Internships are not guaranteed; work with your academic program and the Career Services Center to strategize your plans for an internship to compliment your studies.

- The Forensic Panel
- Applied Archaeology Lab at UNCG
- Tannenbaum Historic Park
- Troublesome Creek Ironwork
- InterAction
- National Parks

Sample Graduate Programs

Students graduating from this undergraduate program also look at continuing their education in these sample programs:

- History Studies
- Law School
- Anthropology
- Public Health
- Classical Studies

GPA & Other Requirements

Once you declare a major and select your academic concentration, you want to be sure you are aware of the various GPA and program requirements. Knowing these in advance will help you stay on track each semester and in planning out your long-term goals.

Concentration	GPA & Program Requirements	Application Procedures
Archaeology Concentration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participation in field work projects is required in addition to classroom requirements.

Sample Minors/Double-Majors

Often, UNCG students may be interested in pursuing a second major or a minor to complement their major. If this is of interest to you, be sure to discuss it with your advisor early on. Some possible minors or majors to consider include:

- History
- Classical Studies
- Geography
