HOW TO GET THERE

Try on this major

There are several courses within the Classical Studies department that any UNCG student can take as a way to “try on” the major and determine if it’s a good fit for you. Talk with your advisor if you are interested in “trying on” this major:

CCI 201: Introduction to Greek Civilization (GEC: GHP, GL; CAR: GPM)*

CCI 202: Introduction to Roman Civilization (GEC: GHP, GL; CAR: GPM)*

*These courses fulfill degree requirements as outlined in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

When to take coursework

Students pursuing a degree in Classical Studies are required to take several different General Education (GEC) and College Additional Requirements (CAR) courses during their freshman and sophomore years. To ensure that you stay on track to graduate, talk with your advisor about registering for the following courses.

A degree in Classical Studies requires students to demonstrate language proficiency in Greek or Latin through course level 204. It is recommended that you begin your foreign language course no later than sophomore year.

ENG 101—either semester freshman year

CCI 201—either semester freshman year

The above classes are a suggested course of study. Talk with your advisor or the Students First Office if your academic plan does not align with these recommendations.

Special Interest Housing

Special interest housing communities are residential-based programs designed to enhance the overall undergraduate student experience by fostering one-on-one relationships between faculty, staff, and students in a close knit residence hall environment. Students are encouraged to explore intellectual, cultural, and social interests through experiential activities often linked to the academic curriculum. Students learn with friends, while gaining real-world experience all where they live. Special interest housing options include:

- Lloyd International Honors College
- Residential Colleges
- Living-Learning Communities
- Themed Communities

Past Internship Sites

Note: this is a partial listing of where students have interned in the past. Internships are not guaranteed; work with your academic program and the Career Services Center to strategize your plans for an internship to compliment your studies.

- Greensboro Historical Museum
- Pace Communications
- Copper Canyon Press

Sample Graduate Programs

Students graduating from this undergraduate program also look at continuing their education in these sample programs:

- Latin Programs
- Law School
- Medical School
- Ancient History
- Archaeology Programs
- International Relations Programs

GPA & Other Requirements

Once you declare a Classical Studies major and select your academic concentration, you want to be sure you are aware of the various GPA and program requirements. Knowing these in advance will help you stay on track each semester and in planning out your long-term goals.

Concentration	GPA & Program Requirements	Application Procedures
Classical Studies (BA) Classical Language and Literature Classical Civilization Classical Archaeology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A grade of C or higher must be earned for all major requirement courses
Classical Studies with High School Teaching Licensure in Latin (BA)*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minimum Major GPA of 3.0 • Achieve minimum score on Praxis I, ACT, or SATB • Completed background check 	Students must be admitted to Teacher Education program. Students may apply at the end of their sophomore year. More information can be found in the Secondary Teacher Education Handbook.

*This licensure program relies heavily on early and adequate advising. It is the student’s responsibility to meet as soon as possible with both his/her major advisor and the secondary education advisor in the School of Education Office of Student Services.

Sample Minors/Double-Majors

Often, UNCG students may be interested in pursuing a second major or a minor to complement their major. If this is of interest to you, be sure to discuss it with your advisor early on. Some possible minors or majors to consider include:

- History
- Education
- English
- Pre-Law
