HOW TO GET THERE

Try on this major

There are several courses within the Sociology department that any UNCG student can take as a way to “try on” the major and determine if it is a good fit for you. Talk with your advisor if you are interested in “trying on” this major:

- SOC 101: Introduction to Sociology (GEC: GSB)*
- SOC 222: Sociology of Deviant Behavior (GEC: GSB)*
- SOC 225: Race, Class, and Gender: Social Inequalities

*These courses fulfill degree requirements as outlined in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

When to take coursework

Students pursuing a Sociology degree are required to take several different General Education Core (GEC) and College Additional Requirements (CAR) courses during their freshman and sophomore years. To ensure that you stay on track to graduate, talk with your advisor about registering for the following courses:

- SOC 101—first semester freshman year
- SOC 290—second semester freshman year
- SOC 301—first semester sophomore year

The above classes are a suggested course of study. Talk with your advisor or the Students First Office if your academic plan does not align with these recommendations.

Campus Organizations & Clubs and Professional Associations

- UNCG Sociology Club
- American Society of Criminology
- NC Sociological Association
- Alpha Kappa Delta

Special Interest Housing

Special interest housing communities are residential-based programs designed to enhance the overall undergraduate student experience by fostering one-on-one relationships between faculty, staff, and students in a close knit residence hall environment. Students are encouraged to explore intellectual, cultural, and social interests through experiential activities often linked to the academic curriculum. Students learn with friends, while gaining real-world experience all where they live. Special interest housing options include:

- Lloyd International Honors College
- Living-Learning Communities
- Residential Colleges
- Themed Communities

Past Internship Sites

Note: this is a partial listing of where students have interned in the past. Internships are not guaranteed; work with your academic program and the Career Services Center to strategize your plans for an internship to compliment your studies.

- Children’s Home Society
- Youth Focus
- Center for Creative Leadership
- One Step Further
- Legal Aid
- U.S. Marshall’s Service

Sample Graduate Programs

Students graduating from this undergraduate program also look at continuing their education in these sample programs:

- Counseling
- Law School
- Security Studies
- Conflict Analysis and Resolution
- Medical Schools
- International Relations

GPA & Other Requirements

Once you declare a Sociology major and select your academic concentration, you want to be sure you are aware of the various GPA and program requirements. Knowing these in advance will help you stay on track each semester and in planning out your long-term goals.

Concentration	GPA & Program Requirements	Application Procedures
Sociology (BA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2.0 Cumulative GPA</li> </ul>	None
Sociology Licensure in Social Studies High School Teaching*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2.75 Cumulative GPA</li> <li>• Achieve minimum score on Praxis I, ACT, or SAT</li> <li>• Complete background check</li> </ul>	Students must be admitted to Teacher Education program. Students may apply at the end of their sophomore year. More information can be found in the Secondary Teacher Education Handbook.

*This licensure program relies heavily on early and adequate advising. It is the student’s responsibility to meet as soon as possible with both his/her major advisor and the secondary education advisor in the School of Education Office of Student Services.

Sample Minors/Double-Majors

Often, UNCG students may be interested in pursuing a second major or a minor to complement their major. If this is of interest to you, be sure to discuss it with your advisor early on. Some possible minors or majors to consider include:

- Anthropology
- English
- History
- International and Global Studies
