HOW TO GET THERE

Try on this major

In addition to the international business courses required for the degree, there are several courses within the department that any UNCG student can take as a way to “try on” the major and determine if it’s a good fit for you. Talk with your advisor about taking one or more of these courses during your first year:

ECO 201: Principles of Microeconomics

ISM 110: Business Computing I

ACC 201: Financial Accounting

When to take coursework

Students pursuing this degree are required to take several different courses during their freshman and sophomore years. To ensure that you stay on track to graduate, talk with your advisor about registering for the correct courses.

Campus Organizations & Clubs and Professional Associations

- Beta Gamma Sigma
- Black Business Students Association
- Delta Sigma Pi
- Human Resource Management Association

Special Interest Housing

Special interest housing communities are residential-based programs designed to enhance the overall undergraduate student experience by fostering one-on-one relationships between faculty, staff, and students in a close knit residence hall environment. Students are encouraged to explore intellectual, cultural, and social interests through experiential activities often linked to the academic curriculum. Students learn with friends, while gaining real-world experience all where they live. Special interest housing options include:

- Lloyd International Honors College
- Living-Learning Communities
- Residential Colleges
- Themed Communities

Past Internship Sites

Note: this is a partial listing of where students have interned in the past. Internships are not guaranteed; work with your academic program and the Career Services Center to strategize your plans for an internship to compliment your studies.

- Bank of America
- Koury Convention Center
- Merrill-Lynch
- Mexican Embassy

Sample Graduate Programs

Students graduating from this undergraduate program also look at continuing their education in these sample programs:

- MBA
- Economics and Finance
- International Relations
- Organizational Development
- Leadership
- Strategic Marketing

GPA & Other Requirements

Once you declare a major and select your academic concentration, you want to be sure you are aware of the various GPA and program requirements. Knowing these in advance will help you stay on track each semester and in planning out your long-term goals.

Concentration	GPA & Program Requirements	Application Procedures
International Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• GPA of 2.0 or higher</li> <li>• GPA of 2.5 or higher to graduate</li> <li>• Required Study Abroad</li> <li>• Required 6 credit hours of 300 level of foreign language</li> <li>• Declare a business focus</li> </ul>

Sample Minors/Double-Majors

Often, UNCG students may be interested in pursuing a second major or a minor to complement their major. If this is of interest to you, be sure to discuss it with your advisor early on. Some possible minors or majors to consider include:

- Sociology
- Psychology
- Marketing
- Finance
