

Instructions for Submitting a Course Withdrawal Request

The UNCG Course Withdrawal Policy allows students who have experienced extenuating circumstances to submit a request for a course withdrawal from the current term or a retroactive course withdrawal up to one year following the term in which course(s) were taken. If a Course Withdrawal Request is approved, you will receive either W or WE grades on your transcript, which will not negatively impact your GPA or your academic standing at the University.

In accordance with the Academic Integrity Policy, a Course Withdrawal Request (CWR) will not be approved for a course/courses in which an academic integrity violation has resulted in an “F” grade. If a sanction other than an “F” has been received, a CWR may be approved at the committee’s discretion. All CWRs will be reviewed with the Dean of Students Office to determine if a student has or had an academic integrity violation during the semester in which they are requesting the course withdrawal. NOTE: Academic integrity violations will remain on your record even if you are approved for a course withdrawal request.

TOTAL VS SELECTIVE WITHDRAWAL

As part of your Course Withdrawal Request, you must indicate whether you are requesting a total withdrawal or a selective withdrawal. A total course withdrawal is a request to be withdrawn from all courses in a term. A selective course withdrawal is a request to withdraw from one or more courses, while keeping other course(s) and grade(s) from the same term.

For either a total or selective withdrawal, please clearly state how your circumstances impacted your academic performance and provide documentation. For a selective withdrawal, you must also explain the reason(s) you were able to demonstrate success in some courses, but not in others.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL REQUEST CHECKLIST

Below you will find a checklist and additional information to help you develop the strongest appeal possible for consideration by the Course Withdrawal Request Committee

Detailed explanation of how circumstances impacted academic success

Did you explain your appropriate cause or extenuating circumstances? This is required before any request can be considered for approval. The term “appropriate cause” means events or circumstances beyond your control that have substantially interfered with your ability to succeed in your course(s). For a selective withdrawal, you must also explain the reason(s) you were able to demonstrate success in some courses, but not in others.

An appropriate cause can be:

- Medical/Psychological circumstances
- Personal/Family Emergency
- Unexpected Death of a Family Member
- Serious Car Accident
- Changes in Employment
- Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault
- Unexpected Financial Difficulty
- Military Service/Deployment

Documentation of appropriate cause/extenuating circumstances

Have you included official documentation of each appropriate cause or extenuating circumstance outlined in your statement of explanation? Examples of possible documentation are outlined in the table below. If you are unsure about what documentation to include, contact the Students First Office for assistance.

*For documentation from The Student Health Center or Counseling Center, you may access your “walk-out” statements via your patient portal. For steps on how to access your documents in the patient portal visit this link HERE.

Copy of course syllabi (required for a selective course withdrawal ONLY)

Are you submitting a Selective Course Withdrawal? If so, you must include copies of a syllabus for each course that you are requesting to be withdrawn from. Typically, course syllabi are available on Canvas or from your instructor.

Preliminary review by an advisor in the Students First Office

Have you scheduled an appointment to review your Course Withdrawal Request materials with an SFO staff member? Although this is not required, you are strongly encouraged to schedule a preliminary review of your request once you have gathered all the necessary materials. Appointments may be scheduled by calling 336-334-5730 or emailing students@uncg.edu.

OTHER HELPFUL TIPS

- ❖ If you are requesting a course withdrawal in course(s) taken in more than one term, submit a separate form for each term.
- ❖ All Course Withdrawal Requests may be submitted up to one year following the term in which requested course(s) were taken. However, Course Withdrawal Requests will not be approved for students who have already graduated.
- ❖ If you are still enrolled in the class, continue to attend, unless circumstances prevent you from doing so, until you know the results of your request.
- ❖ If requesting a total course withdrawal for the current term, please note that you may be required to reapply through Undergraduate Admissions.
- ❖ Be sure to make copies of your documents prior to submitting the Course Withdrawal Request.
- ❖ When you are ready to submit your Course Withdrawal Request, please turn in the entire packet of materials to the Students First Office, 101 Forney Building.

COMMITTEE DECISION & TIMELINE

Once you submit your Course Withdrawal Request to the Students First Office it will be submitted to the Course Withdrawal Request Committee, who will request information from your instructor(s) and/or from other departments before making a decision. You will be notified of the committee's decision within four (4) weeks of submitting your request. All notifications will be sent to your UNCG email account (or the email account provided if not currently enrolled) and will include the reason(s) why your request has or has not been granted, as well as any other important information related to the decision

REQUESTS FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Course Withdrawal Committee's decision can only be reconsidered if you submit new information and/or documentation to support your original request. Any new materials must be submitted to the Students First Office within thirty (30) days of receiving the original decision. The Committee's decision on a request for reconsideration is final. No further consideration or appeal can be made to any other office, department, or University official.
