

ACADEMIC RE-ORIENTATION (ARO) MEETING

What is an ARO meeting?

- AROs guide students through the process of returning to UNCG following Academic Suspension
- They are 1:1 meetings with an Academic Recovery Coach in the Students First Office (SFO)

Scheduling and Registration Holds

- Once students reapply to UNCG and confirm their intent to enroll, SFO will reach out via email with scheduling instructions
- ARO registration holds are placed on students' accounts upon being placed on Academic Suspension and are lifted after the ARO meeting is completed

Questions?

Contact us!

☎ 336-334-5730

✉ students@uncg.edu

What is covered in an ARO meeting?

- Prior barriers to success and ongoing or projected challenges that could further impede academic progress
- UNCG's GPA requirements and the consequence of not meeting these requirements
- Academic policy and support options tailored to the student's unique circumstances and needs
- Financial Aid (SAP) Appeals and other financial arrangements

When do ARO meetings take place?

Term of Reentry	AROs Start
Spring	October
Summer	March
Fall	April

Students must complete their ARO at least one week before their semester of return begins

UNC
GREENSBORO
Students First Office