UNCG UNDERGRADUATE MINORS

A minor is a secondary academic discipline in addition to your major. Most minors at UNCG require 15-18 hours. Minors can be a way to specialize in a specific area, explore another area of interest, or take courses in a subject you enjoy. Minors are only awarded/earned when a baccalaureate degree is earned.

Accounting
Advocacy & Public Writing
African American Studies
African Studies
American Sign Language
Ancient Mediterranean Studies
Archaeology
Art History
Art History for Artists & Art Museum Studies
Arts Administration
Asian Studies
Biology
Business
Chemistry
Civic Leadership & Engagement
Climate Justice
Communication Studies
Computer Science
Creative Writing
Dance
Digital Earth Technologies
Disability Studies
Drama
Economics
Education Studies
English
Entrepreneurship
Environment
European Studies
Forced Migration & Resettlement Studies
French and Francophone
Genetic Counseling
Geography
German
Gerontology
Historic Preservation
History
Human Development & Family Studies
Information Analytics
Information Science
Information Technology
Interdisciplinary Art & Social Practice
International & Global Studies
Japanese
Jewish Studies
Latin American & Caribbean Studies
Mathematics
Media Studies
Medical Humanities
Mental Health Literacy & Wellness
Music
New Media & Design
Nutrition
Painting
Peace & Conflict Studies
Philosophical Ethics
Philosophy
Photography
Political Science
Printmaking & Drawing
Psychology
Public Health
Recreation & Sport Management
Retailing & Consumer Studies
Russian Studies
Sculpture & Ceramics
Social Work
Sociology
Spanish
Spanish for Health Care Professionals
Sport Coaching
Sport & Social Development
Statistics
Studio Art
Sustainability
Technical Theatre
Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages
Theatre Management
Videogaming & Esports Studies
Women's, Gender & Sexuality Studies

NOTE: Some programs may have restrictions on different major/minor combinations, so be sure to discuss your interests with an advisor!

Based on minor options available beginning in Fall 2026
(updated 4.16.2026)