

UNCG GENERAL EDUCATION CORE (GEC)

At UNCG, all students participate in the University's General Education Program, more commonly referred to as GEC. By the time you graduate, you will have a broad knowledge of a variety of different academic fields beyond your chosen major that enables you to think critically and creatively about yourself, your peers, and the world in which you live.

GEC includes 8 different liberal arts categories, outlined below. Within each category are numerous courses to choose from based on your personal and academic interests.

GEC Abbreviation	GEC Category	Course Examples	Total Courses
GFA	Fine Arts	Art Appreciation, Music Appreciation	1 (3sh)
GLT	Literature	Narrative, Poetry	1 (3sh)
GPR	Philosophical, Religious, & Ethical Perspectives	Philosophy, Political Science, Religion	1 (3sh)
GHP	Historical Perspectives	US History, World History	1 (3sh)
GMT	Mathematics	Algebra, Statistics	1 (3sh)
GNS	Natural Sciences	Biology, Nutrition, Chemistry, Astronomy	2 (6-7 sh); 1 class must include a lab
GRD	Reasoning and Discourse	Communication Studies, College Writing II	2 (6 sh); 1 class must be a college writing course
