YOU’VE BEEN ACADEMICALLY SUSPENDED OR DISMISSED...

NOW WHAT?

Receiving news of Academic Suspension or Dismissal can be difficult, especially if you don’t know what the next steps are. The Students First Office created this resource as your guide for navigating this process.

PART 1: YOUR EXIT CHECKLIST

To Be Aware Of:

Your Spring/Summer 2020 classes will be canceled on January 3, 2020. Course registration will be unavailable for all future terms unless you follow the procedures to return to UNCG (see Part 3).

Your UNCG housing assignment and/or meal plan for the 2019-2020 academic year will be automatically canceled on January 3, 2020. Contact Housing & Residence Life for questions about cancellation.

Any Spring/Summer 2020 tuition and fees you have paid will be refunded to you following the cancellation of your class schedule, housing assignment, and meal plan. If you were eligible to receive financial aid (awarded via the FAFSA) for these terms, it will not be disbursed. If you have questions about your student account, Financial Aid award, or Financial Aid eligibility, contact the Cashier’s Office and/or Financial Aid Office directly.

PAUSE! If you attempt an Academic Suspension/Dismissal Appeal, cancellation of your Spring and Summer 2020 course schedule, housing/meal plan, and tuition bill will be postponed until a final appeal decision is rendered.

To Take Care Of:

Set up a personal email account: Your iSpartan email account will remain available for up to 6 months but may be inactivated sooner than that. Set up a personal email account and forward any UNCG emails you wish to save. Note: Your UNCGenie account will remain available without any time limit.

Consider continuity of healthcare and counseling services: If you were using Student Health Services or the Counseling Center, make plans for where you can seek these services outside of UNCG.

Return your campus parking permit: Permits should be returned to UNCG Parking Operations. Be sure to cancel your 2019-2020 parking permit as well.

Request a refund of your Spartan Card balance: Refund information is available on the Spartan Card Office website.
PART 2: THINK ABOUT YOUR TIME AWAY

Many students feel stressed about their Academic Suspension/Dismissal because they do not know how they are going to fill their time while they are away from school. Here are a few ideas to get you started:

Take care of yourself: If your academic difficulty was a result of medical or psychological distress this is a great time for you to get connected with mental health and/or medical professionals and focus on your personal wellness.

Enroll at your local community college: This can be a great way to continue gathering some academic credit, but we recommend consulting your academic advisor or the Students First Office to see if this is a good option for you. If so, contact your local community college for enrollment information and act quickly, as course enrollment for the fall term has already begun.

Seek employment to earn income and valuable experience: Seeking employment in a career field related to your interests is a great way to collect valuable experience, professional references, and prepare for future academic expenses. Remember, in addition to managing other expenses, you will also need to plan for the repayment of student loans to begin within 6 months unless you set up a deferment option.

KEEP IN MIND: Transfer credit earned at other institutions DOES NOT influence UNCG academic standing or GPA. Remember that you will need to earn a minimum 2.3 GPA at the community college to be eligible to return to UNCG.

PART 3: PREPARING TO RETURN TO UNCG

The steps to return depend on whether you have been Academically Suspended or Academically Dismissed. We recommend you start planning EARLY if you know you wish to return at the end of your suspension/dismissal period. For more detailed information about returning to UNCG, take a look at our Return to UNCG Guide.
